(September 18, 2020) So, What's In Your Closet? Maybe some old sports memorabilia that someone else might want to buy? An autographed ball? A bobblehead? A jersey? Or maybe you have tickets to give away.

The second annual MONTGOMERY COUNTY SPORTS HALL OF FAME (MCSHF) induction ceremony will take place on Sunday, October 18th at 7 p.m. Along with it is the second annual online auction.

Six honorees will be celebrated in a virtual ceremony that will be streamed on www.MCSHF.org. This year's auction begins on Tuesday, October 13th. (You might even find a Dr. Fauci item).

The online auction supports the MCSHF's goal of Building a Better Community Through Sports. And we hope to feature items that come from the community. Your donations are tax deductible. Last year we auctioned off items from famous athletes from the area, including memorabilia signed by Olympic Gold Medalist Katie Ledecky, Basketball Hall of Famer Gary Williams and WFT quarterback Dwayne Haskins. Other items such as trips, hotel stays, tickets, meals, rounds of golf and other service items are welcome.

To donate an item please fill out and submit this form:
